Special Thanks

On behalf of those officers honored here today, special thanks are extended to all program participants who took part in today's ceremony; Charity Baptist Church for the use of their facilities and hospitality they've shown to the families. Turner Construction for sponsoring the morning breakfast for family members; Plain or Fancy Catering for providing the food for the morning breakfast and luncheon; the Cabarrus County Sheriff's Office for hosting this year's Peace Officers Memorial Day. Also, special thanks is extended to Sheriff Brad Riley for his hard work in helping coordinate this year's ceremony; NC Sheriff's Association for the Memorial Wreath and "Pinning Roses"; NC Association of Chiefs of Police for the families' carnations; Fraternal Order of Police for the Honor Roll Memorials and funding of the luncheon for families and participants; the NC Homicide Investigator's Association and the Society of Former SBI Agents for donating memorial flags to the families of the 2008 - 2009 Honor Roll Officers; retired Laurinburg Chief Robert Malloy for preparing the framed badges; the NC Justice Academy for printing of the programs and production of a video; and to all the surrounding state and local departments for their support and contribution of personnel.

Today, we also honor the families of all Honor Roll Officers as well as all active and retired law enforcement officers in North Carolina.
